Beneath there's My Motivational Letter.

Dear Sir/Madam

Greetings, hope my letter will find you well, I come to you as I am proactive and I am very interested in working for the company as I fulfill/acquire the requirements wanted in the company. The requirements closely match my educational background. It would be a huge privilege if I got such an opportunity to use my knowledge and skills for your review.

Throughout my past professional career, I have undertaken various important responsibilities with sincerity. I have good leadership skills and I am very good in managing my emotions when working under pressure. I am very focused and I have the capability to complete all my tasks in given time and in providing best of service with my capabilities. I am able to respond quickly to critical situations. I am able to multitask and work hand in hand with my co-workers if needed. I am very energetic and I complete all tasks in time.

I acquired the following skills.

-Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills.

-Time Management.

-HTML & CSS.

-JavaScript

-Python

-C++

-Self-management and motivation skills.

-Problems resolver/Fixer.

-Leadership skills.

I am extremely hardworking and I am in a good position to meet all the requirements and expectations needed. I am very focused and I have set a goal for myself which is I am very eager to succeed in life. I thrive working in a team and independently. I am aware of the kind of dedication and perseverance I will need to have for achieving the best results in the field.

Yours sincerely

Shaun Madabeni
